The Theatr Gwaun are experiencing issues with their heating system. There is a one in four chance that it could fail over the winter months and they are looking to the Town Council for funding to help with repairs.
Cllr. Stokes will present the details to the Town Councillors for their consideration.
Please discuss
9. PRECEPT SETTING FOR 2020/21
The Finance committee have considered a report made by the Clerk with regards to the budget and the precept request.
The Clerk asked Cllrs. for suggested projects and costs, to be brought to her attention. Unfortunately, no ideas were forthcoming so the report could only be based on what information the Clerk had to hand.
There is a small window of time to make suggestions, with costings, for consideration and inclusion on the budget setting for 2020/21.
Please discuss

10. DELEGATED SERVICES FROM PCC: CLLR. RYAN

Representatives from PCC recently met with members from FGTC to discuss the possibility of the FGTC taking over some of the services currently provided by PCC.

Cllr. Ryan will talk you through the options.

Please discuss

11. COUNCIL CHAMBER UPDATES: CLLR. STOKES

Can the Council Chambers be upgraded to allow us to generate more income as a meeting room? Cllr. Stokes has some suggestions and some ideas to put to the Council.

Please discuss

12. CHRISTMAS LIGHTS COMPETITION: CLLR. RYAN

Cllr. Ryan would like to get the Christmas Lights Competition up and running and is looking for volunteers to assist him.
